France+Western

Founded by Lyle Railsback, France+Western seeks out great unknown wines from small growers in France, Italy, and Austria and then champions them with the help of the best restaurants and wine shops in America.

After ten years in restaurants, Lyle moved into wine distribution and importing, he spent the next 14 years between Winebow and Kermit Lynch Wine Merchant.

During annual trips to France and Italy, he fell in love with their wine culture, and simultaneously into making wines in California's Santa Ynez Valley with his brother, Eric. After encouragement from his mentor, Bruce Neyers, he began importing wines under his own label, "France+Western."
